

Oracle in Motion

I designed these icons for a mobile communications management application for Oracle Corporation in 1994. Icons were very challenging to design at that time due to technological constraints in both color and resolution. These had to be 22 by 22 pixels in a 16-color system palette.

